Representative Kevin Kiley

Congressman Kevin Kiley serves the people of California's 3rd District in the House of Representatives. He is dedicated to using his position to promote fiscally sound policies to reduce inflation, increase choice in education, and responsibly manage our public lands to preserve our beautiful forests and prevent catastrophic wildfires.

Representative Kiley holds a bachelor's degree from Harvard and a master's in secondary education from Loyola Marymount. He began his career as a 10th grade English teacher at Manual Arts High School in inner-city Los Angeles. There, he chaired the English Department, led students to significant academic gains, and founded an award-winning speech and debate team. After graduating from Yale law school, Mr. Kiley helped prosecute the civil case against China's Huawei Technologies for intellectual property theft and defended the Constitution in California courts. Later, Mr. Kiley became a prosecutor and represented the People of California against violent felons as Deputy Attorney General.

Mr. Kiley was first elected to the California State Assembly in 2016. In his six years in the State Legislature, he introduced the most significant school choice legislation in recent years and authored laws on protections for sexual assault victims, privacy, criminal justice reform, and freedom of speech. In 2020, he was named National Legislator of the Year by the Association of Independent Workers for his work advancing economic freedom.

Congressman Kiley is proud to serve on the House Judiciary Committee and was appointed to three subcommittees: the Subcommittee on the Constitution and Limited Government; the Subcommittee on Courts, Intellectual Property, and the Internet; and the Subcommittee on Crime and Federal Government Surveillance. Representative Kiley also serves on the Education and the Workforce Committee and is Chair of the Subcommittee on Workforce Protections, as well as a member of the Subcommittee on Early Childhood, Elementary, and Secondary Education.
